Freelance Building Surveyor

Description

Are you an experienced surveyor looking for new challenges and additional work opportunities?

Chawton Hill have a thriving and busy home surveying practice. We work with a range of experienced and carefully selected surveyors. Together, we provide high-quality surveys to home buyers from our base in Leatherhead, Surrey to clients throughout the South East. If you are a qualified and experienced RICS surveyor with capacity to support our clients, why not get in touch?

We've put together an outline of the kind of person we're looking for. Take a look and discover the many benefits you'll receive working with us. You'll retain the flexibility of working on your own account, with the support of our team and a host of other benefits. If you think this is likely to be something you can support us with, send us an email. Alternatively, give us a call today on 01372 360663.

Responsibilities

Carrying out full building surveys on a range of homes across the South East of the UK. We are able to support you and provide work in a range of locations.

You should have good experience and understanding of the requirements of a full building survey and be able to work independently within the Chawton Hill framework.

Full guidance will be provided.
